If you should ever lose your heart
To that someone you wanted all your life

And if that someone fails to part
Any meaning from a meaningless goodbye

If it's a dream I wouldn't know if it's worth dreaming
And if it's a lie I'd say they're are hard to recognise

But if I'm the one to give you all the answers
I'd say some day at least it's worth a try

If you should ever lose your heart
To that someone you wanted all your life
And if you'd ever lose your balance
To that someone you'd fail to satisfy

If it's a deam I wouldn't know if it's worth dreaming
And if it's a lie I'd say they're are hard to recognise

But if I'm the one to give you all the answers
I'd say some day at least it's worth a try
