It's all coming back to me now darlin'
The things that I hide from are here
I used to run around late at night
Giving myself up without a fight
But now I see it, I see it clear
The truth is here, So come on hold me tight
'Cause I was not a child afraid of darkness
But an Adult Afraid Of The Light
It's all coming back to me now darlin'
The shadows I held in my arms
But my arms were weak, I let them slip away
Leaving me to face another day
And now i see it, I see it clear
The truth is here, So come on hold me tight
'Cause I was not a child afraid of darkness
But an Adult Afraid Of The Light
Opening, Open, Opening, Open every door
When It's A and not PM, I see
Now I see it clear the truth is here...
Adult Afraid Of The Light...
The truth is here, So come on hold me tight
'Cause I was not a child afraid of darkness
But an Adult Afraid Of The Light
Yes the truth is here, So come on hold me tight
'Cause I was not a child afraid of darkness
But an Adult Afraid Of The Light
Oh the truth... It's all coming back...
The things that I hide from... Are here
