I wish that I was you
I wish that you were dead
I wish I was alive
At least inside your head
I'll set fire to the past
Park across the street
And sit and watch it burn

I saw you on a train
The train was heading south
South of you and me
And me, I shut my mouth
The churches that we build

We burn - and burn and burn and burn
and burn again
We burn - and burn and burn and burn
and burn again

I wish the kid was grown
And walking on this earth
Looking just like you
And looking like myself
The bridges that we build

We burn - and burn and burn and burn

and burn again
We burn - and burn and burn and burn
and burn again

And burn and burn and burn
and burn again
And burn and burn and burn
and burn again

I wish that I was you
I wish that you were dead
I wish I was alive
At least inside your head
I'll set fire to the past
Park across the street

and burn again

We burn - and burn and burn and burn
and burn again

We burn - and burn and burn and burn
and burn again

And nothing you can do Nothing you can say
Will ever change my mind
