Well I admit, I tell white lies
And I admit, I dramatize
Everything that I do
Well I admit, I am headstrong
And I admit, I act too young
But for the bad in me, there's good to offer you

Oh, but the girl you see, slips her number into pockets
And lets her love fly off like rockets, to the moon
Well baby there's no room
For the girl you see, she's not anything no not like me
If you really think that I could lead you on
Well you read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong
You read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong

Well I admit, I just don't care
And I admit, I sometimes stare
But usually it's at you
Well I admit I tend to cry
And I admit, I don't know why
But for the bad in me there's good to offer you

Oh, but the girl you see, slips her number into pockets
And lets her love fly off like rockets, to the moon
Well baby there's no room
For the girl you see, isn't anything no not like me
If you really think that I could lead you on
Well you read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong
You read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong

So I'm caught in a trap and don't know what to do
So tell me, can't you see all that matters now
Is me, and you
But it's no use baby 'cause, oh

Well baby there's no room
For the girl you see, she's not anything no not like me
If you really think that I could lead you on
Well you read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong
Yes, you read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong

You read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong

You read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong
You read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong
You read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong
You read me wrong, so wrong, so wrong
