It's that typical night on the phone
Hear ya voice and I feel all alone
Talking about your girl and how she's your whole world
It makes me crumble inside knowing you'll never be mine
I just wanna feel your arms around me
Give you my heart and let you know
She'll never want you like I do for you.

Chorus:

It's one of them days ya stare at ya window
Fall in love with the voice of an angel
Wishing on the stars he'll be yours one day oh...
He's just the best friend ya fell in love with
Makes you live life and act like your fearless
But he'll never know
He'll never know oh...

That when ya dream ya dream of him
That when ya say goodbye you wanna grab him and pull him close
And say that girl will never know how ya make me feel but instead at the end of the driveway you just say goodbye and you let him go
Oh you just let him go and now he'll never know...

Chorus:

It's one of them days ya stare at ya window
Fall in love with the voice of an angel
Wishing on the stars he'll be yours one day oh...
He's jsut the best friend ya fell in love with
Makes you live life and act like your fearless
But he'll never know
He'll never know oh...

That the way you love him it's like johnny and june
Meant to happen but at first will never be...
You wanna tell him but scared of the outcome
So you leace it at that
And you just let him go and I'll guess he'll never know...

Chorus:

It's one of them days ya stare at ya window
Fall in love with the voice of an angel
Wishing on the stars he'll be yours one day oh...
He's just the best friend ya fell in love with
Makes you live life and act like your fearless
But he'll never know
He'll never know oh...

He'll never know, He'll never know... oh he may never know oh...
