I had a friend
His name was Bob
He had a girlfriend
Her name was Snob
They knew how much
They loved each other
then the next day
they found out they were sister and brother

they were both sad
they didn't notice
they both thought together the truth just had to be this

i had another friend
she was my best friend
her name is katie
and we will be friends to the end

no matter what
even if we fought
we were always friends
no matter what she thought we were like twins
we wanted to be witches
we named ourselves
after the movie twitches

so no matter what happens i'll always have my friends always and forever
to the end
