Human nature is a funny thing,
You been out there all these years.

No explaining 'bout this chemistry,
as I wipe away these tears.

I been staking out your neighborhood,
and my eyes are open wide.....

You're All I Need, my little heart is aching.

You're all I see, don't let my heart keep breaking.

I been trying to make you notice me,
but you'd think I wasn't there.

I been saving my best jokes for you,
as if you could really care.

I been leaning on my sanity,
but it's time to let it go.....

You're All I Need, my little heart is aching.

You're all I see, don't let my heart keep breaking.

I been staking out your neighborhood,
you can always count on me.....

You're All I Need, my little heart is aching.

You're all I see, don't let my heart keep breaking.
