I been sitting on a shelf,
I dont want to let you go.

I would dedicate myself,

and it's time you know.

I'm begging for some clue.

We promised not to change at all,

but somehow lost the spark.

And it breaks my heart...

If I could go BACK IN TIME,

Invade the past,and wait till you arrive.

If I could go BACK IN TIME,

When all was safe, and love was so alive...

Must we threaten our extinction?

Only danger wakes the heart.

Well, we try so hard to reason,

from so many miles apart.

I'm begging for some magic.

Sometimes I see it in your eyes.

And in those fleeting moments,

I am satisfied...

If I could go BACK IN TIME,

Invade the past, and wait till you arrive.

If I could go BACK IN TIME,

When all was safe, and love was so alive.

I've never lost the hope,

any minute this could change.

Oh, baby,

only you can take my breath away...

If I could go BACK IN TIME,

Invade the past, and wait till you appear.

If I could go BACK IN TIME,

The world was safe,and everything was clear...
