"Alone"

I was alone, alone in love
It was so cold, you didn't Know
But now, my heart has been
Stoned
I was real, you couldn't
Feel
You were my dream, that I
Had seen
But now, my heart has Learned

When you go in your bed
You imagine her in your
Head
Take a photo of her
It's much easier
It will be there for you
Saying: "Good night to
You"

I was alone, alone at home
I was so gone, you
Couldn't know
But now, my heart has got
Enough
I was yours, but you ain't
Mine
I was crying for the spin
Of time
But now, I have had enough

When you are dreaming of
Her
And the crying in your
Head
Grows so much more
Stronger
And you can't hold her
She won't be there for you
Even saying "Hi" to you

Now the Sea of Love is
Drowning me
Realising that she's not
Loving me
I'm feeling empty
Where's my self-esteem?
Those killer words that
She let out
Scared me to death and
Rescued some how
I don't belong in here
Take me away from this
Hell
This will be the last time
That I'll write
My mind so empty
That I can't smile
I'm trying hard
But nothing happens
I'm out of cards
Deal a new round
Will even they help me
Out?
I am dying from inside
Can't you see it right

I've got the things I've Always wanted
I have dreamed about it
All the time
I've got a guitar that's Named after you
Just 'cos I wanted to
I've got everything
But not you
