Under a shady tree, you and me
Under a shady tree, you and me
Under a shady tree, you and me
Under a shady tree, you and me

Can you feel the breeze blow by?
Can you feel it on your face?
This is our special place.

Under a shady tree, you and me...

Can you feel the soft cool grass?

Can you feel it with your toes?
We can sit here while it grows.

Under a shady tree, you and me...

If you want to close your eyes
And sleep beneath the tree
You can rest your head on me.

Under a shady tree, you and me
Under a shady tree, you and me...
