Memories of yesterday
Are stepping stones that pave the way
From the heartache of a love I can't forget
I've found this out to be so true
For all my memories of you
Mark my lonely pathway of regret

Stepping stones
They're only stepping stones
I wish I never have to pave the way
Stepping stones
Your lies are stepping stones
And that's why my heart is broke today

Moments sad and moments sweet
Are only stepping stones that meet
At the end of the pathway of our way
Misery and bitter tears
These lonely nights, so filled with years
Are stepping stones that show me my mistakes

Stepping stones
They're only stepping stones
I wish I never have to pave the way
Stepping stones
Your lies are stepping stones
And that's why my heart is broke today

Stepping stones
They're only stepping stones
I wish I never have to pave the way
Stepping stones
Your lies are stepping stones
And that's why my heart is broke today
