Verse 1:

Look at me now, look at me now. am I asking too much?
Would it be so hard, would it be so bad? Is changing that tough? changing that tough.

Chorus:

And I don't know what to say to you.
And I don't know if you can ever prove that you love
me, that you love me
And I don't know if it'll ever be what I wish for in my dreams so I'll just be ok.

Verse 2:

My life flies faster everyday. Can't we find a way, can't we find a way?
Let's start over again, or can we pretend that everything's ok? we're really all the same.

Verse 3:

Look at me now, look at me now. am I asking too much?
asking too much.
And I don't know if it'll ever be what I wish for in my dreams, so I'll just be ok.

Bridge:

I'll just be ok, I'll just be ok (Repeat 4x)

Chorus 2:

And I don't know what to say to you.
And I don't know if you can ever prove that you love me, that you love me.
And I don't know if it'll ever be what I wish for in my dreams, so I'll just be ok.
