Verse 1:

Why do you choose to act this way?; Why do you choose to play this game?
One day you'll wake up and find that we're all gone.
Life could be so much more for you; Love and laughter
it's all true
If smiles are worth a million words just show me one.

Chorus:

And I will love, and I will wait for you.
We're getting nowhere, stop messing around and just be you.
Yeah yeah, yeah yeah

Verse 2:

You're not easy in my life but neither am I; We've clashed for way too long.
The truth is hitting home.
But I will love you when it's hard.
If this is how life goes; I'm ready for our show.
