Whenever you want it then there is a call
To break down your silence, to give and to crawl
That your good nature wonç£~ help the disease,
That thereç£— is no time whenever your please

A world full of darkness that maybe ahead
The only way out seems to become a threat
That there are many reasons why you should awake
You donç£~ have to swallow all that you hate

As soon as you notice, it feels like the flu
A world full of rape - blessed - what youç£—e going through
Just try to find it all out what you wanna do,
Before you canç£~ change it - believe me Iç£Ž true

The day that this old game would leave you some time
You failed to remember what you had in mind
Were just a fucked up frozen piece of meat
Sometimes cut a piece off - a vermin to treat
They are running you down

But thereç£— something I donç£~ know
If it might come or will it flow
I canç£~ decide just now whatç£— right
I could do all but thereç£— no time
If you donç£~ know, for all that shit you care
Abuse yourself, your friends will be aware
Those who really are, would give it back sometimes
But donç£~ make yourself a whore, donç£~ be so blind
