Laughter found here -and I can't find the well
Something has happened and now I'm insecure
And downstairs the pain grows I will lose control
I smell her armpits but I do need her soul
I could be so generous, but now it's time to die
No one could help her and no one will hear her cries

And I live to save her from me

I'll keep her so precious and I'll see her god tonight
Then I'll be calm and patient, will only take the night
I could be generous to her, but now it's time to die
No one could help her I know it and no one hears her cries

And I live to save her from

I exist to protect her from me

Now there she lies in bed
And I'm the one who will find her it's time to go That fuckin blade in my hand will bless her and take her higher
She's gorgeous
And all I see is blood on the ground
I'm feeling dizzy - I think my time is out
Blessed for that she did fool me
And now it's time for me to say goodbye to her

I hear the laughter around me
And I can't find the well something has happened and now I'm insecure

And I live to protect her from
What the fuck was going wrong
