Once I thought that I could tone it down
The way that life comes ç£ound -
That day, that freak, somehow I can't explain
I won't ignore the same

Wrong again

Iç£Ž not gonna find a reason why I'd turn it 'round
But now I leave it all behind and wind this up

Around the neck

Too much time we waste to find a way that always shows us how

But sometimes itç£— like they wonç£~ let you out
And you will be your slave - wrong again

Iç£Ž not gonna find a reason why I'd turn it 'round
And I believed that I could swim but now Iç£Ž gonna drown

To the sound of so much self - I know that I would hate myself

And so I leave it all behind and wind this up -

Around the neck
