It's true, I lied, I cheated
And the truth is that ain't all
While you were thinkin' of me
I was busy thinking of myself
I never gave and I took all I needed
Runnin' wild until you walked
And since you left
If you're wonderin' where I fell

Well I hit the ground crawlin'
I heard your memory callin'
And I can see from the bottom
Of this bottle I'm clingin' to
That the reason you're long gone
Is that I treated you so wrong
But I hit the ground crawlin'
Right back to you

To get us back together
I'll cry, I'll beg, I'll bend

I swear I've learned my lesson
Darlin' don't give up on me
'Cause the nights go on forever
Will the heartache ever end
Can't stand to live without you
I'm beggin' on bended knee

'Cause I hit the ground crawlin'
I heard your memory callin'
And I can see from the bottom
Of this bottle I'm clingin' to
That the reason you're long gone
Is that I treated you so wrong
But I hit the ground crawlin'
Right back to you
Yeah, I hit the ground crawlin'
Right back to you
