INTERLUDE

Come on, (haha) game's on baby
Uh huh
I know you're saying all these crazy things to make me stay
And I was pretendin' I was leavin'

I know better, I don't know better
I know better, I don't know better
But that don't make it no better

VERSE 1

It's 3 in the morning, so why you keep hitting me?
You're out of your mind, girl you must be kidding me
Calling me like it's a thing to do
Tricking me with the same excuse
Said your new shades was over my house
Please, it's dark out, why you need them right now?

VERSE 2

Telling me to bring your food and just smile
But who eats salad in the middle of the night?
Alright, maybe I just missed you a little too
I might even smile about the crazy things you do
But I'm crazy too, cause I'm just so into you

Oh, oh
Even though we've spent time alone (uh huh)
It always breaks my heart when it's time to go, I know

I know you wanna keep me here
But I'll be gone for a minute
I'll be back I swear

PRE-HOOK

The rain falls down when you walk away
Please don't tell me that you're leavin'
I know the only way that you're gonna stay with me
Is if I make up a really good reason
(You crazy)

CHORUS

But I know better
I don't know better
I know better, I don't know better
I know better, I don't know better
But that don't make it no better

VERSE 3

Another day, another show
Goin' on the road cause a brother's gotta roll
But here we go again, there goes my phone again
(Hello?)
You callin' me, telling me you want me home again
(What?)
Sayin' you broke down with a flat tire (I did!)
Next minute, your house is on fire (It was!)
It ain't like that, I ain't gonna fight back
I'm trying to make cash so we're goin' on the right track

VERSE 4

I think somebody's on my roof tryin' to break in Where? Who you think you fakin'? (Haha)
It's cause I gotta leave again
You cry without no reason
And I'm through believin' it

Even though we've spent time alone
It always breaks my heart when it's time to go, I know
And you know I'm sincere and loyal
I'll be back soon, sincerely yours

PRE-HOOK

The rain falls down when you walk away
Please don't tell me that you're leavin'
I know the only way that you're gonna stay with me
Is if I make up a really good reason (What you tellin' me?)

CHORUS

But I know better
I don't know better
I know better, I don't know better
I know better, I don't know better
But that don't make it no better

VERSE 5

Look, I saw another woman when we first got together
I told you that I would be down for what ever (that's right)
Why you worryin' like you do?
Cause you know I'm just makin' my way back to you
You know

Don't, don't, don't matter
I like this
I like you too
I like this
Talk to me

PRE-HOOK

The rain falls down when you walk away
(Okay I'm gone)
Please don't tell me that you're leavin'
(What?) (Nah, I'm just playin')
I know the only way that you're gonna stay with me
(That ain't funny!)
Is if I make up a really good reason

CHORUS

But I know better
I don't know better
I know better, I don't know better
I know better, I don't know better
But that don't make it no better

CHORUS

I know better
I don't know better
I know better, I don't know better
I know better, I don't know better
But that don't make it no better

VERSE 6

See you tryin' to play me like a video game
Well, I'm about to hit reset then
This game's up (yeah right)

What I say babe, you always leave me waiting

OUTERLUDE

I know better, I don't know better
I know better, I don't know better
