i know better, i know i know better, but i know better, i know know better (L.A.X) know better, i know know better but that dont make it no better

(2XL) [verse 1]

its 3 in the morning so why you keep hittin me? out of your mind, girl you must be kiddin me callin me like its the thing to do-o-o-o trickin me with the same excu-u-se said your new shades was over my head its dark out why you need them right now?
tellin me to bring you food i just smile, but who eats salad in the middle of the night?
alright, maybe i miss you just a little too i might even smile about the crazy things you do but im crazy too cause im just so into you

(chorus)

even though we spend time alone
it always breaks my heart when its time to go i know,

(2xl)

i know you wanna keep me here, but im just gone for a minute ill be back i swear

please dont tell me that you'll walk away please dont tell me that you're leaving
i know the only way you're gonna stay with me is if i make up a really good reason
i know better, i know i know better, but i know better, i know know better
know better, i know know better

[verse 2]

another day, another show goin on the road cause a brother gotta roll here we go again, you call my phone again you call my phone and tell me you want me home again?

said you broke down with a flat tire (i did!) next minute your house was on fire (it was!) it aint like that i aint tryna fight back im tryna make cash goin on the right track i think somebodys at my door tryin to break in..

where? its noon who you think you fakin its cause i gotta leave again you cry without no reasonin all through the evenin

(chorus)
i know,

i know better, i know i know better,
but i know better, i know know better

[verse 3]

i still remember when we first got together, i told you id be down for whatever (thats right) so why you worryin like you do?
cause you know im just makin my way back to you

please dont tell me that you'll walk away
i know better, i know i know better,
but i know better, i know know better
know better, i know know better

[x2]
i know better, i know i know better,
but i know better, i know know better
know better, i know know better

[x2]

what can i say when you always keep me waitin?
