I know its getting late, but this just couldn't wait
I put a come on over message on your myspace we need to chop it up, before it goes any further Now your getting- wait a minute.
I hear you hanging round, outside my window now.
I shouldn't let you in but theres so much to talk about
You know Im never this way, but I feel it when were face to face

Man its getting hot in here, happens everytime that you are near
think we need to stop...drop...roll Gotta take it slow, cause you know I aint about to go there.

its just the two of us, now this is serious.
I like you more than just a little, and its too much turn up the radio a temporary distraction, now I don't know how this happened,
So why'd you have to go and get me all twisted
And all the while im thinking I could not resist it Im tryna hold back, but I don't know if I can.

Man its getting hot in here, happens everytime that you
are near
think we need to stop...drop...roll Gotta take it slow, cause you know I ain't about to go there.

I think we, should hold out, and not let it go, cause Ive never been the type of girl to lose control but when you, you get that, you get that close, what am I suppose to do when your next to me and I want you, Temperature is rising

Man its getting hot in here, happens everytime that you
are near
think we need to stop...drop...roll Gotta take it slow, cause you know I aint about to go there.

Man its getting hot in here, happens everytime that you

are near
think we need to stop...drop...roll Gotta take it slow, cause you know I aint about to go there.
