Well, I've been waiting for the Sun
To brighten up my day
You know that you're the only one
To drive the tears away

So hold me, hold me..
Make everything alright.
show me you love me tonight

Sometimes I want to run away..
So far away from here.
The only thing that makes me stay,
Is when I hear you say that you'll...

Hold me, hold me..
Make everything alright.
Show me, you love me.. tonight.

Well, I can fly around this world
And it might seem like something
But it don't mean nothing
Only the thing I want right now is you

Well, I can fly around this world and it may seem like something
but it don't mean nothing
I don't care if you're a boy or a girl
We all need something, just to keep us going
All I really need right now is you

So hold me, hold me
Make everything alright
show me you love me tonight, tonight

So hold me, hold me tonight
Show me you love me tonight
