"I Fall In Love"

Wake up in a room that I don't know next to a girl I met last night I'm sure I'll love her all my life it's late I have to go to school get a bus I never looked that cool before who's there standing on the door

here we go again
just a glance and my heart breaks down I fall in love with every girl I see here we go again
I'll never find the girl of my life 'cause I fall in love with every girl back home I think of her all day her smile takes my breath away I fancy to go out and play go to park to kick a ball with mates have fun when I saw 2 big tits come by funny bumping up and down
