Ahh, you got me...

You got me feelin so...

2 days, 3 minutes, 40 seconds
Since you hung the phone up on me
And I don't care anymore
If I never hear your voice callin out to me
Cuz just like the wind
You change direction
You blow me away constantly
And just like a dog after you kick me
I turn to you wantin you to love me

You got me feelin so twisted
You got me feelin so messed up inside
You got me feelin so happy
You got me wantin to break down and cry

If love hurts then I guess
I must be totally in love with you
Cuz I imagine my life without pain
And I don't even know what to do
To just feel the moments
You're so good to me
I'd walk a thousand miles on my knees
But deep down I know
When I'd finally reach you
I would still end up beggin you please
Baby, please

You got me feelin so twisted
You got me feelin so messed up inside
You got me feelin so happy
You got me wantin to break down and cry

You got me feelin so twisted
(Got me feelin so)
You got me feelin so messed up inside
(Got me feelin so messed up, yeah)
You got me feelin so happy

(Got me feelin so)
You got me wantin to break down and cry
(Got me wantin to cry)
Oh

Baby please

You got me feelin so twisted
You got me feelin so messed up inside
You got me feelin so happy
You got me wantin to break down and cry

You got me feelin so twisted
(Got me feelin so)
You got me feelin so messed up inside
(Got me feelin so messed up, yeah)
You got me feelin so happy
(Got me feelin so)
You got me wantin to break down and cry
(Got me wantin to cry)
Uh

Got me feelin so
(Got me feelin so)
Got me feelin so messed up
(Got me feelin so messed up)
Got me feelin so
(Got me feelin so)
Got me wantin to cry

If love hurts then I guess
I must be totally in love with you
Ye-yeah
