"Do You Hear It"

A candle in the dark
Slowly fading away
Just like that little echo
Do you hear it?
Cutting through the night

Somewhere among the stars
A wish is sent
By a fragile heart
Listen, as it beats
Longing for something deep inside

Fly, high up a mountain
A new door to explore
A journey to new horizons
Is this too much for one wish
To be so free, to be just me
Do you hear that wispher in the dark

One voice slowly, softly
Searching for that melody
To sing life's harmony

Fly, high up a mountain
A new door to explore
Is this too much for one wish
To be so free, to be just me
Do you hear it? Do you hear it?

Do you hear my wispher in the dark
