Friends of the universe
I welcome you all
To the world of sunshine and laughter
There's so much to see if only you could see
That life is so merry, so jolly and free
Come listen to me and hear what I say
Just a little favor from society
'cause it only needs a muscle to be happy
So come and show it and give all the love

Refrain:
Give a little bit of smile
And the world would smile too
Yes, a little bit of smile
And the sun will shine through
Give a little bit of smile
Spread the cheers now
Spread them smile after smile

Life will be easy, I promise you'll see
Open up your eyes to things of beauty
And remember the world will find it's glory
If you and me will only agree
[Give a Little Bit of Smile lyrics on]
Give a little bit of smile
And the world would smile too
Yes, a little bit of smile
And the sun will shine through
Give a little bit of smile
Spread the cheers now
Spread them wide like the bird

That keeps on flying in the sky
Like the child who listens to a lullaby
There's a smile that we can share together
Give that smile and love one another

Give a little bit of smile
And the world would smile too
Yes, a little bit of smile
And the sun will shine through
Give a little bit of smile

Spread the cheers now
Spread them smile after smile
A little bit of smile
