Pinch me so I will know
Is this a dream?
If not,
Give me one good moment that will last
That will last

If you can journey with me, then
Do share
One good moment that will last
That will last

Breaks upon me like regret
Showers of things I can't forget
These are the things that will last
Hoping that it will adjourn
Comet of stars that will burn
These are the things that will last
That will last

Did I summon the stranger at the door?
Are you sure? Are you sure?
Summon the stranger at the door
Are you sure? Are you sure?

Please drop me at the shore
And people love who you once were (you once were)
