tonight the misdirected thoughts
in my head
keep drowning you
out
and you try to disconnect the dots til you get too tired to
shout

something inside of
us
keeps on dividing us

we
need to figure us out
cause we can't keep going
so far away
from knowing what we're all about
we need to figure us
cause i still want you
around
somehow

you say
unexpected things to yourself
you'll probably regret
and i try to resurrect the way that i felt
the day that we
met

but something we can't control
keeps us from letting go
we need to figure us

cause we can't keep going
so far away from knowing what we're all about
we need to figure us

we should find a way to make it make sense
instead of breaking us
down
we should a find a reason not to go if leaving's all we've got left
right now
whoa whoa
oh

we need to figure us
on so far away from knowing what we're all about
we need to figure
us out
somehow
