Sweet Baby Dreamer
Sweet sweet
Sweet baby dreamer
Sweet sweet baby dreamer
Sweet baby dreamer
The night is moving in
But she feels no change
Her body lays to rest
To kiss away another day
Her illusions come alive
She slips away into the night
When her eyes are closed she feels alright
But her time is up at break of light
Sweet blue eyed dreamer
You can dream in daylight
Sweet baby dreamer
You don't need to hide
Over and over on your own escapade
Sweet blue eyed dreamer
Don't be running away no
Sweet sweet baby dreamer
Don't be running away no
Midnight and time to rise
He's dressed for the show
Smooth talking faster living
Is the only the life he knows
His illusions come alive
When he slips away into the night
When the party's rolling he's alright
But his time is up at the break of light
Sweet blue eyed dreamer
Who comes out at night
Sweet baby dreamer
You don't need to hide
Over and over on your own escapade
Sweet blue eyed dreamer
Don't be running away
