I've found a little time and I've been Thinking about days gone by Remembering when we used to Sit up and talk all night
Never found it hard to
Keep our love alive
But somewhere down the road
We lost the will to survive

Yes we did
I've gotta wake up wake up

When I'm alone sometimes
I just don't know what to do
I get a little messed up
And I find myself thinking of you
Dreaming I see you face I
Start believing it's true
I get a little messed up
And I find myself thinking of you

Thought I heard you call my name
But looked around and no one was there
It's gotta be crazy babe
When I know that you just don't care

See you everywhere that I go
You're everywhere in my mind
I just can't shake you baby
It's gotta take some time

Yes it will
I've gotta wake up wake up

When I'm alone sometimes
I just don't know what to do
I get a little messed up
And I find myself thinking of you
Dreaming I see you face I
Start believing it's true
I get a little messed up

And I find myself thinking of you

When I'm alone sometimes
I just don't know what to do
I get a little messed up
And I find myself thinking of you
Dreaming I see you face I
Start believing it's true
I get a little messed up
And I find myself thinking of you
