Something to say, say it now
Don't make me wait loosing my ground
We had our love what a shame
But I love ya all the same
But I won't play in your game

And I need to break free
Cause you're trippin on me
Don't take it personally

You say you love but you don't show me
You think I'm wrong but you don't know what's right
And now I've found my heart after all this time
I'm taking back what's mine
I had your back who's got it now
You're off the track, can't be found
Our love was strong but then you let me down

But I love ya all the same
Still I won't back in your game

And I need to break free

Cause you're trippin on me
Don't take it personally

You think you love but you don't show me
You think I'm wrong but you don't know what's right
And now I've found my heart after all this time
I'm taking back what's mine

To think you're love was a fantasy
Only to find you're no good for me
I shouldn't say where I don't belong
I've made up my mind
I'm taking back what's mine

You think you love but you don't show me
You think I'm wrong but you don't know what's right
And now I've found my heart after all this time
I'm taking back what's mine

Repeat to Fade
