i never wanted
i never wanted to be the one telling you this way but i can't keep it i can't keep this to myself anymore another day we're holding onto feelings from way before what we want, what we need, is not there anymore

we think its love love love love love but its crazy
we can't get it right
still we carry on
is it love love love love love because maybe we've been going on far too long you never asked me you never asked me how, how i felt those times you went away you don't need me, oh no you don't show me that you want me i'm just hanging in your way holding onto feelings from way before

still we carry on

we think its love
we think its love baby woah yeah

fighting for a reason that i can't ignore what i want, what i need is not there anymore

we think its love love love love because maybe we've been gone

but its crazy
still we carry on
is it love love we've been going on far too long far too long
