Hush, hush, why don't you wanna talk about it?
Bitch, bitch, you don't need to sugar coat it
I don't want us to ever get to the point
Where we can't recover

Break, break, we're allowed to have our moments
I won't spell it out, ain't nothing wrong with being honest
I can take it, go ahead, let it out
Let's get it over and done with

I don't wanna fight anymore
'Cause every minute that we fight
Is a moment that we could be lovin'
Lay down me tonight, don't wanna fight

We could start a war with both our tempers
Tomorrow, I bet you anything we won't remember
Who was right, who was wrong, what we said
But we'll regret what we've lost

No, I don't wanna fight anymore
'Cause every minute that we fight
Is a moment that we could be lovin'
Lay down with me tonight, don't wanna fight

I've taken for granted how good we have it
Let's laugh till we cry and get back to what matters
Oh, it matters

No, I don't wanna fight anymore
'Cause every minute that we fight
Is a moment that we could be lovin'
Lay down with me tonight

No, I don't really wanna fight anymore
'Cause every minute that we fight
Is a moment that we could be lovin'
Lay down with me tonight, don't wanna fight
No, I don't wanna fight, I don't wanna fight
