I did something stupid
Not too long ago
I broke a heart and then he left me
That was hard to swallow
Listened to a lot of Hank Williams
Singin' Cheating Heart
That record use to make me wanna dance

Well I didn't know what those cheating songs meant
Back when my friends and I were singing 'em out loud
Yeah I didn't know what they meant back then
But I do now

Yeah I thought I found a new love
At the bottom of a glass
He told me to tell the whole dang world
To go ahead and kiss my ass
Thank God for Merle Haggard
Hes right, The Bottle Let Me Down
That record use to make me wanna dance

Well I didn't know what those cheating songs meant
Back when my friends and I were singing 'em out loud
Yeah I didn't know what they meant back then
But I do now

Oh now I found the one that matters
The man Im never letting go
I'm alive more than I've ever been
Freer than I've ever known
Yeah, I always did believe the Chicks
A Cowboy Would Take Me Away
That record always makes me wanna dance

Yeah I didn't know what those love songs meant
Back when my friends and I were singing 'em out loud
Yeah I didn't know what those love songs meant
But I do... yeah. I do now. Oh, I do now.
Oh, I do now.
