Can't Eat, can't breathe,
Can't get up off my knees.
I don't know what comes over me whenever you come near.
Heart's pounding in my chest.
A little voice voice inside my head.
I can't hear a word it says but the felling's loud and clear.
(Chorus) Love must be tellin' me something.
Givin' me some kind of sign.
Spellin' it out for me, love must be telling me,
I must be fallin tonight.

I've been in love and lost.
I swear I've sworn it all.
No matter what the cost I've learned to live without.
Boy, you weren't in my plans.
But baby here I am.
I still don't understand, but I know there ain't no doubt.

(Chorus)

Boy, you weren't in my plans,
But baby here I am.
I still don't understand, but I know there ain't no doubt.
Ooh yeah. Oh now, now.

(Chorus) 2x
