No one loves me better
No one ever could
I wish someone would have warned me
That you would be so good

Oh, you you you you've ruined me
Oh, you you you you've ruined me
Go on and take a bow
I can't help loving how you've ruined me
Yeah, you've ruined me

Guess my hands are tied here
How far do you want to take this
If my mouth's done too much talking
You should stop me with your kiss

Oh, you you you you've ruined me
Oh, you you you you've ruined me
Go on and take a bow
I can't help loving how you've ruined me
Yeah, you've ruined me

To me it's a revelation
To you it's no surprise
All the things that you do to me
That make me come alive
I could be the best thing
That's ever happened to you
Touch me, hold me, teach me, show me
How to ruin you too

Oh, you you you you've ruined me
Oh, you you you you've ruined me
Go on and take a bow
I can't help loving how you've ruined me
Yeah, you've ruined me
