The faces fall from a melting sky
Out grows the mouth from illusion's eye
Religion's built for tomorrow's man
Torn down to lies

Tell me father were you the man
Behind the gun last one to stand
Tell me father were you the one
Who killed the man behind the gun

Blind from the wound that never heals
While I grip deception's hand
Still forbidden to believe in God
And Hell keeping victims in disguise
Evil minds manipulate
Blacking out your eyes and living of the hate
Cut me Â- crush me Â- watch me bleed

Tell me father just killed a man
Said he was your son came to save us all
Tell me father was it all a lie
Or am I the one the man behind the gun

Feel the bullet ripping
Drilling through the bone
My vengeance towards me gripping
Am I the one behind the gun
Beneath the mask lies hidden
Lost soul and secret lies
My brothers that lie victim
They were left to die blood unjustified

Tell me father Â- was I the one
Tell me father Â- was I the one behind the gun
Father, father tell me father
Hold that hammer down

Killing darkness so surreal
Soul to soul
