Through her rage
You will feel a spell
I come untamed
By the emotions you compel
The liners breaks
And you'll know that's all I want to share
We raise the stakes
To mystify this last affair

Burning desire
You're my fire
Magical eyes - there's no disguise
Forever you're never alone
Magical eyes - for the first time
You've never been seen through before

Seem so unreal
Us sitting out as we are longing for
It takes a battlefield
With devotion wanting more

Burning desire
You're my fire
Magical eyes - there's no disguise
Forever you're never alone
Magical eyes - for the first time
You've never been seen through before

Burning desire
You're my fire
Magical eyes - there's no disguise
Forever you're never alone
Magical eyes - for the first time
You've never been seen through before
Magical eyes
Magical eyes
Magical eyes
Magical eyes
