The driver, the driver

For one day, for one night, two nights, three days Everytime that we were alone, I know that we were alone
Laying close, your own heart to the reason, excuses you're having under your roof
Leaving me behind...

(Ohhh!) I stabbed the driver!
But she stopped, right fast,
(Ohhh!) I stabbed the driver!
Then I walked alone,
(Ohhh!) I stabbed the driver, the driver
Now I feel my own...

Ohh, oh oh
No, you gotta love your life first...

After crying, I stood up, I saw life, tried to run
Tried to liberate my mind, but I felt sometimes
At the end, we can learn the mistakes,
It's a story starting to control...
I was right by my fault...

Once more I've tried but now there's no way back,
Stab her in the back, right in the heart,
Sleep now in my arms little girl,
Sleep little girl, sleep little girl, sleep in my arms
Forever!
