Slang came from a land where they suffer from the effects of depravity like gang bangin' and earthquakes Most famous no namers split a brain and plant a taste for the King of kings I know it's a strange concept Pedalin' redemption boy what more can I say make me and Lecrae been trying to make Him famous since ninety three Fillin' these 58â€™s with phrases that would deem us unfit to succeed among these heathens It's so crucial in the belly of the crucible that you would understand that stage like your morning candle It's handin' out cancer that's why fame was never the aim and the back is the front â€™ homie left side up!
That's a concept

Misconception

Those deadly habits have me losin' my cool...
It's what your frame of mind has chosen.
I'll leave your brain stimulated...

So many mis... conceptions- missin' the mark- mis-directed- drivin' reckless and aggressive Fueled by our false perceptions - our methods need corrections-Spittin venom in their face and violate the ones we should protect it's an attempt to motivate Neglect our obligations place the blame on someone else point out the flaws in other people and take the focus off ourselves Those who have been abused â€™ view leadership as illegitimate so they don't think it's necessary to play by the rules or submit
They see authority as nothin' more than a power-trip â€™ they don't want to be plugged into it They'd rather see that power stripped â€™ get it?

Power strip... It's unfortunate Disproportionate the door is wide open for false teachers to twist the truth and distort it No examples left to follow left to our demise actin' foolish but can't see it so we're wise in our own eyes
The life and crucifixion of Christ is a beautiful depiction of service and submission " within a leadership position

You probably have it all figured out, right?
Like your the type that believes that if you act right then that just might make you righteous in God's sight You've been a really good person, you followed the good book as much as you could, you probably didn't go to church as much as you should, but it's all good I mean you never really killed anybody, never really steal from anybody, you never lusted much, or did much, touching of any bodies.
You never use the Lord's name in vain, and you respect you neighbor, you try to maintain peace, love your enemies and not hold on to anger You really believe that you could receive God's favor by your good deeds and right behavior But you're dead in your transgressions and need a savior Cause you could never win God's approval with the removal of sinful discretions " your righteous acts of removing God's wrath is in fact the biggest misconception...

Since my conception I've been riddled with deception Televised lies devised to lead a blind insurrection Against the resurrection - and the greatest misconception
the world believes the Christian is foolish without direction.

And they knock it they knock it but what does it profit a prophet to be socially ostracizing no we ain't stoppin' the mocking
But if there is anything I can do to raise the stock in the market for a Biblical worldview then there's no longer an option Here with the humble beast, ain't no subtleties, ain't no tongue in cheek, this is what I mean, they don't understand anything about the faith I believe, and they want to belittle me But it's cool though.
They just know the pseudo, the fake faith, the false one,
the western God that's man made, not the Biblical Awesome
Toss em' " Pick up the Reasons for God by Timothy Keller and read it, there is a God you should believe in and his name is Jesus...
