[Vocal:]

Yeah.

Just wanna die with a beat.

Swim around in it.

Let's rebel

[Vocal:]

I'm in Rebellion

(To all my rebels out there.)

I'm in Rebellion

(Rebelling against the culture.

Being transformed.)

I'm in Rebellion

(Ya'll conformed to the ways of the world.

Or this age.)

I'm in Rebellion

(Welcome to the revolution.)

Jesus was a rebel, a renegade, outlaw
A sanctified troublemaker, but He never sinned, naw
And He lived His life by a different set of Rules
The culture ain't approve
So you know they had to bruise 'em
That's the way they do
Man, they swear they so gangsta but everyone's the same
Everybody do the same stuff
Tattoos, piercing
Smokin' up and drinking
Money and sex plus them extravagant weekends
Man if that's the high life
I'll puff past that
You live evaporated like your missing a gas cap
I guess I'm passed that
I am in rebellion
I'd rather have a dollar in my pocket than a mill-ion
I'm scared to worship money, and my wants over Elyon
I'll remain a rebel while the rest of them just carry on
This is what I live fo
This is the hill I'm buried on
If Jesus is the Truth
That means one of us is VERY wrong

Think about it.

I'm in Rebellion

(I know in our day rebel means sinner.)

I'm in Rebellion

(But everyone is sinning, so it is no longer rebellious to sin.)

I'm in Rebellion

(Jesus was a rebel that was a counter culture.)

I'm in Rebellion

No glory in me

Glory to the King on the throne (Jesus)

You either love Him or leave Him alone but you can't do both

Yeah, I know you heard that once in a song

I pray you hear 10 mo fo ya gone

Hey listen up, holmes

Stage is the corner

Crowd is the streets

And I rap the bread of life cause they dyin' to eat

I'm a rebel you know the kind that die in the street

Cause you refuse to conform, won't eat the kings meat

yeah

Christ rebelled by shunning the cultured

He eat with sinners

Givin' Pharasies ulcers

He never got married, He was broke plus homeless

Yeah that's the God I role wit

ya boy gotta wife and no I neva cheated

I'm prayin' for humility whenever I get heated

Forget about the drugs

Rebel against pornography

This ain't how it oughta be, homie

This is how it's gotta be

A Rebel

I'm in Rebellion

(You're just a conformist

Drunken, Naked, Driving around a loud motorcycle,

Smoking cigarettes, Breaking commandments,

Getting pregnant outa wedlock,

Everyone's done that,

It's so tiring,

If you really wanna be a rebel,

Read your bible,

Because no on'es doing that,

That's rebellion.

That's the only rebellion left.)
