Staring out, the sky parallels a sea of doubt like symmetry

Up and down, your thoughts dance along the water now

And you break, break, break away

You break, break, break, break!

Ocean eyes, I see a vacancy or hole in time

Living in your, living in your, break, break, break!

Ocean eyes, I need a way to free the ghost inside
Hear me out, (here and now) your presence divides a crowd like symmetry

Anger drowns (anchored down) think you're finally starting to breathe

Starting to breathe

You break, break, break, break!

Ocean eyes, I see a vacancy or hole in time

Living in your, living in your, break, break, break!

Ocean eyes, I need a way to free the ghost inside
Yeah, yeah
Coming up for air?

I would breathe for you

Coming up for air?

Or for me, for me, for me, break, break, break!

You break, break (under the crashing waves)

You break, break, break away, (break away) break away from me

Ocean eyes, I see a vacancy or hole in time

Living in your, living in your, living in your eyes

Ocean eyes, I need a way to free the ghost inside
Living in your, living in your, living in your eyes

(Ocean, ocean, ocean, ocean eyes)

Ocean eyes, I see a way to free the ghost inside
