The night was cold an' dark
Not a sound was heard..
Each step was short and quick
She walked without a word..

The sky was darker
Than an eight ball's black
Echoing of footsteps
Drew up closer for attack

Getting closer...

One hand upon 'er mouth
Her heart begins to race
Anticipation mounts
He's ready for the chase

Well you can run..
But you won't escape
Never thought that you'd be
A victim of a rape..

Getting closer...
(Steal away your love)
He's gonna take your innocence
(Steal away your love)
Emptiness fills his eyes..
Oh... (steal away your love)
Gonna kill to think of it
He just walks away-ay-ay..
Don't cry

Back was up against the wall...

Oh.. don't fight
Ya know he's gonna have it all..
Oh play the game don't feel the pain
Such an injustice

For her to bear the shame

(Steal away your love)
He's gonna take your innocence
(Steal away your love)
Emptiness fills his eyes..
Oh... (steal away your love)
Gonna kill to think of it
He just walks away-ay-ay..

(Steal away your love)
Gonna take your innocence..
(Steal away your love)
Emptiness fills his eyes
Oh... (steal away your love)
Gonna kill to think of it
He just walks away, oh...
Oh steal away, steal away
Oh no
Na, na, na, no
Oh steal away your love...
He just walks away
Walks away
Walks away
Walks away
Walks away
SOUND EFFECT: footsteps to end of vocal
Walks away
Walks away
Walks away
SOUND EFFECT: door slam
