Grabbed my keys
The door i slocked
I turned off the coffee pot
Running late as I back out of the drive
I feel I'm forgitting something

Chorus:

Maybe my heart is finally healing
Could it be i'm getting over you
Baby, I'm better now at dealing
With living with out your loving
Your memory's down to nearly nothing
I feel like I'm forgetting something

There's a guy at work he's cute for sure
I've never noticed him before
Something's hd me so preoccupied
But I feel I'm forgetting something

Repeat Choeus
