Trouble's here but I ain't gonna worry
About the way things are
'Cause we've got a love that can light the fuse
To the brightest star

We got a big moon above us
Shinin' through the dark
I'll trade this mind full of troubles
For a love burnin' up my heart

Darlin', we got something, hard to define
I know it's love but it's love of another kind
Melts away worries like the desert sun
We're two hearts a poundin' to the beat of a different drum

Trouble's here but I ain't gonna worry
About the way things are
'Cause we've got a love that can light the fuse
To the brightest star

We got a big moon above us
Shinin' through the dark
I'll trade this mind full of troubles
For a love burnin' up my heart

I like the way you hold me and your kissin' too
I love those sweet-talkin' words you say when I'm feelin' blue
Swear I'm in love with you baby, and I'm crossin' my heart
There ain't enough trouble in this whole world that can keep us apart

Trouble's here but I ain't gonna worry
About the way things are
'Cause we've got a love that can light the fuse
To the brightest star

Hey, we got a big moon above us
Shinin' through the dark
I'll trade this mind full of troubles

For a love burnin' up my heart

Said, I ain't gonna worry
About the way things are
'Cause we've got a love that can light the fuse
To the brightest star

Hey, we got a big moon above us
Shinin' through the dark
I'll trade this mind full of troubles
For a love burnin' up my heart
