your leaving messages on my phone telling me you want to come back home but i just can't picture it going down..

eh.. now ive been thinking about that good love the way you used to freak me in the morn' and though it hurts ive got to throw it out

i can't believe you was thinkin' i would never find out messin' with my head like i ain't got proud your crying but them tears ain't as loud as the proof in
my hand

and cameras dont lie
you cant deniye
ive got you on film
i know you dont have a twin, girl
i put you outsound
out of my house
coz' cameras dont lie
cameras dont lie
wowow

Girl it came through on my iPhone your lovey dovey dove witcha boy tyrone but you told me he was just a friend i could have thought something was wrong i just couldnt put my finger on got me thanking god for technology

i can't believe you was thinkin' i would never find out
your crying but them tears ain't as loud as the proof in
my hand

you cant deniye
ive got you on film
i know you dont have a twin, girl
i put you outsound
out of my house

coz' cameras dont lie
cameras dont lie
cameras dont lie
ohh ohh ohhh
ohh ohh

and cameras dont lie
you cant deniye
ive got you on film
i know you dont have a twin, girl
coz' cameras dont lie
cameras dont lie
wowow
ohh ohh

cameras dont lie uh uh

cameras dont lie
