it hit me like a ton of bricks to my chest it's something that i never would of guessed that you would be walking out that door all the times i shared with you it was the best i never would of thought you would of left don't wanna stick around with me anymore now i, i wish you would of told me why, instead of just up and leaving before you said good-bye
if you ever love someone..

if you ever really love somebody what do you do when you lose somebody this one is for the broken hearted for the ones that's feeling all alone
if you ever really love somebody know how it feels when you lose somebody
this one is for the broken hearted

everyday it seems like rain is falling down but nobody ever seems to be around these pictures are bitter sweet memories holding my head from pain that doesn't go away and every morning i see your face baby cos my mind forgets that you're not here now i, i wish you would of told me
why, instead of just up and leaving before you said
good-bye
if you ever..

if you ever really love somebody (if you ever)
this one is for the broken hearted (broken hearted) for the ones that's feeling all alone (all alone)

nobody wants to live alone (no they don't wanna live) and if you've been touched by the words in this song then you know if you ever..

what do you do when you lose somebody (oh)
this one is for the broken hearted (broken hearted)

what do you do when you lose somebody (if you ever loved)
this one is for the broken hearted for the ones that's feeling all alone (if you ever loved)
this one is for the broken hearted

oooh oooh oooh
no oooh oooh oooh
no oooh oooh oooh
ooooh
this is for the broken hearted
