I used to make you cry,
But I haven't smiled since you left.
Can you undo goodbye?
It's a word I wish I could forget.

(Chorus)
You told me you love me,
& I try to move on,
But it's hard to get up when you fall.
So I wrote a song about love,
But it's nothing at all.

It was you who took the blame,
even though we both knew who was wrong.
I'm calling out your name
every time that I'm singing this song.
Cause it's over.
Yeah, it's over.

(Chorus)
You told me you love me,
But it's time to move on.
It's so hard to get up when you fall.
So I wrote a song about love,
But it's nothing at all.

(Oooohhhhhh)

Cause it's over.
Yeah, it's over.

You told me you love me,
& I try to move on.
It's so hard to get up when you fall.
So I wrote a song about love,
& it's sad cause it won't be enough.
So I wrote a song about love,
but it's nothing at all.
