"Another Sleep Song"

Maybe I'm just tired
I'm never getting any sleep
Maybe I'm just tired
All the secrets that I have to keep

And if I stay until the break of day
Chances are you won't remember my name
And when the morning comes
I'll be on my way

One more night of my town
And I swear I put the bottle down
Goes you follow but I need you, see

If I stay until the break of day
Chances are you won't remember my name
And when the morning comes
I'll be on my way

And if I stay until the break of day
Chances are you won't remember my name
And when the morning comes
I'll be on my way

And if I stay until the break of day
Chances are you won't remember my name

And when the morning comes,
And when the morning comes,
And when the morning comes,
I'll be on my way
