Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh
Do you remember sleeping on my floor
Talking about how things were before
Who will save you now?
Who can show u how to love again?

The posion of your kiss
The waterfall of words from your lips
Who will sane you now?
Who can show you how to love again?

Oh Oh Oh Oh
I try to forget you and not let you down
But the hardwood on the floor has melted and you're wearing your crown
And who can save you now?
And who can show you how to love again?

Oh, Oh, Oh ,Oh, Oh
