(Operation heartache, operation heartache)
My shoes won't walk your street no more
My fist won't knock on your front door
It took so long to realize

(Operation heartache, operation heartache)
My, I don't wanna hear your lies no more
Your drug-addictin', tongue-twistin' alibis no more
Gone, I'll be long gone
(Operation heartache, operation heartache)

(instrumental)

My heart won't be in your hands no more
Don't call me your man no more
It took so long to realize

(repeat & fade):
(Operation heartache, operation heartache)
It took so long to realize
